

Call for 4 participants from rural areas for participation in the youth exchange

March 23 - 30, 2020
TUNISIA (Djerba)

About the project:

The „E-Learning for Youth Empowerment“ project aims to explore the virtual space as a learning space for youth work. The idea is to optimize the online experience of young people during a learning process that involves diverse, multicultural groups. Assuming that virtual learning is a sustainable and accessible concept that needs to be fully activated in the next few years, project activities have been created:

1. Meta Youth Exchange in Tunisia (Djerba) from 23 to 30 March 2020 (including travel days)
2. Virtual Youth Exchange in July 2020 (online for one month)
3. Training for youth workers and leaders to use online tools in youth work and non-formal education
4. Manual for online learning for youth leaders and youth workers

Project activities are implemented by the following organizations Association Voix de l'Enfant Rural - AVER (Tunisia), Learning For Change (BULGARIA), Intercultural Association NUR (Italy), Bait Byout (Palestine) and NAPOR (Serbia), through ERASMUS+ program, supported by the European Commission.

Youth exchange aims at defining the benefits and challenges of learning in an online space through the exchange of experiences of participants from different countries, which will serve as a basis for creating a virtual youth exchange. It will involve 20 young people from Tunis, Serbia, Italy, Palestine and Bulgaria. Participants will be accompanied by the group leader appointed by NAPOR. Food, lodging, health insurance and travel expenses are fully covered by project.
