

Petar Đurović: ”I can always learn something from young people”

Introduce yourself and your job.

I am a youth worker. I live in Leskovac, Serbia.

What makes your job exciting?

My job is exciting because I can always learn something from young people and I can create new ideas and things together with them.

What are your dreams as a youth worker?

My dream as a youth worker is to make the world a better place for living, where all people are equal and respected.

Why did you choose youth work?

I have chosen youth work because I believe that is the best way to share my knowledge and energy with young people.

What is your most memorable experience as a youth worker?

My most memorable experience as a youth worker is when we (group of young people and I) managed to really reach out local community and helped them to overcome some long lasting prejudices.

How has your job effected you and what have you learned?

I think that this job affected me in a great way because I gain more skills and met a lot of exquisite people, learn interesting things and visited awesome places.
